DESCRIPTION

This course will prepare students with prior knowledge of French for first-year French courses by providing a thorough grammar review at the intermediate level and extensive practice in aural comprehension, oral and written production and reading comprehension.

OBJECTIVES

Students will develop intermediate skills in 5 competencies: listening and reading comprehensions, speaking, interacting, and writing productions. In addition, they will acquire intermediate knowledge of French vocabulary, grammar, and Francophone cultures through texts studied in class and in the lab.

OUTCOMES

Students will reach intermediate-level proficiency in French and will be able to improve their linguistic and cultural skills in French.

PREREQUISITES

FREN 211, French 30 or equivalent, or consent of the Department. Students with credit in any course beyond the equivalent of French 30 must register in FREN 225 or FREN 227. The minimum prerequisite grade for entry into a language course is C- or better in the preceding course.

COURSE NOTES

1. Classes start on Wednesday, 8th September 2021, and end on Wednesday, 8th December 2021 Unless modified by the instructor, each classroom lesson will last for 50 min from 11 am -11: 50 am three times a week: Monday, Wednesday and Friday.
2. Students are expected to check the D2L page (d2l.ucalgary.ca) daily for announcements, homework, assignments, marks and tentative schedule.
3. Attendance: Regular attendance is strongly recommended. The instructor should be informed of any reason for prolonged absence.
4. Missing tests and assignments: Missed tests and assignments without any prior notice will be awarded a grade of zero.

Faculty of Arts
School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

5. Classwork will be submitted to D2L Dropbox, it is consisting of:
 - 2 compositions each on a topic provided by your instructor. These are marked according to: Form (spelling, proper use of tenses, avoidance of Anglicism, proper verb forms, nouns, and adjective agreements) and Content (respect of the given topic, appropriate length, avoidance of repetition, use of vocabulary learned in class, creativity, and logical links between sentences). The first composition will be held on Friday 8th October, 2021 while the second will be on Friday, 19th November, 2021.
 - 2 dictations based on the vocabulary/grammar concepts learned in class. Half a mark will be taken away for spelling and grammar mistakes and word omissions. The first dictation will be held on Friday, 24th September, 2021 while the second will be on Friday, 5th November, 2021.
 - 2 tests will be given during the semester, one at the end of Unit 3, one at the end of Unit 5. They are based on chapter materials and will include listening/reading comprehension, grammar/vocabulary questions, sentence transformations, mini compositions, etc. The first test will be held on Friday, 22nd October, 2021 while the second test will be on Friday, 26th November, 2021.
6. Marked assignments will be uploaded on D2L not later than 3 weeks after the submission of the assignment.
7. Lab will commence on the week of Monday September 13th. Attendance is mandatory. An oral presentation will be required as an element of the laboratory work. The presentation will be done with a partner, but individual marks will be given for grammar, vocabulary, flow and pronunciation, content, creativity, and overall effort. NO READING ALLOWED. The topics of the oral presentations and the marking rubrics will be posted on D2L.
8. IMPORTANT: ALL evaluation activities scheduled in this course, no matter the format, are to be done individually by the students using only the allowed materials. For each test and evaluation, the allowed material will be specified by the instructor.
9. Students are encouraged to meet the French Centre monitors regularly, namely, to complete their French Passport activities. Monitors are available Monday to Friday, from 9.00 AM to 3.00 PM.
10. To enhance your French class experience, you can also find more exercises on: <http://ucalgary.ca/repst/exercices-de-langue/>
11. Permission should be obtained from the instructor before any lecture recording.

INTEGRITY AND CONDUCT

All members of the University community have a responsibility to familiarize themselves with the Statement on Principles of Conduct, and to comply with the University of Calgary Code of Conduct and Non-Academic Misconduct policy and procedures (available at: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>).

Academic misconduct

Academic Misconduct refers to student behavior which compromises proper assessment of a student's academic activities and includes: cheating; fabrication; falsification; plagiarism; unauthorized assistance; failure to comply with an instructor's expectations regarding conduct required of students completing academic assessments in their courses; and failure to comply with exam regulations applied by the Registrar.

For information on the Student Academic Misconduct Policy and Procedure please visit: <https://ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-academic-misconduct-policy.pdf>, and <https://ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-academic-misconduct-procedure.pdf>

Additional information is available on the Academic Integrity Website at <https://ucalgary.ca/student-services/student-success/learning/academic-integrity>

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND COPYRIGHT LEGISLATION

Faculty of Arts School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may not be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (<https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright.pdf>) and requirements of the Copyright Act (<https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html>) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PRIVACY (FOIP) ACT

Graded assignments will be retained by the Department for three months and subsequently sent for confidential shredding. Final examinations will be kept for one calendar year and subsequently sent for confidential shredding. Said material is exclusively available to the student and to the department staff requiring to examine it. Please see <https://www.ucalgary.ca/legalservices/foip> for complete information on the disclosure of personal records.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures listed below. The student accommodation policy can be found at: <https://ucalgary.ca/student-services/access/prospective-students/academic-accommodations>.

Students needing an Accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities (<https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/procedure-for-accommodations-for-students-with-disabilities.pdf>.)

Students needing an Accommodation in relation to their coursework or to fulfil requirements for a graduate degree, based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to their Instructor or the Department Head/Dean or to the designated contact person in their Faculty.
