COORDINATOR'S NAME and E-MAIL: Emilia Spoldi (spoldi@ucalgary.ca)

DESCRIPTION:

A continuation of Italian 201, this course provides training in the comprehension, speaking, reading and writing of Italian. Emphasis will be on developing further the students' communicative competence as well as their knowledge of the Italian culture. Labs will be officially scheduled by the department.

Prerequisites: Italian 30, Italian 201 or equivalent.

Note: Enrolment in any higher level Italian course requires a grade of at least "C-"in the prerequisite course(s), or consent of the Department.

Course Objectives: The course will cover chapters 8 to 13 of the textbook. Students will learn how to talk about everyday life, travelling, Italian cinema and TV programs, shopping, housing and the environment. They will learn how to talk about past and future events, express wishes, ask and make suggestions. They will also converse about Italian cultural and current issues concerning modern Italy.

Learning Outcomes:

Speaking: Speak Italian well enough to greet and take leave appropriately in formal and informal contexts; ask and answer basic information questions; talk in simple ways about yourself, your family, your student life, your likes and dislikes, your wishes, both in the present and in the past

Listening: Comprehend spoken Italian well enough to be able to grasp the main idea and some supporting details in short conversations that relate to daily life and represent authentic situations.

Reading: Read and understand the main idea and some details from both authentic and edited material (including short narratives, simple poems, advertisements and recipes).

Writing: Write messages and letters on familiar topics; compose paragraphs and short stories that relate to the subjects discussed in class.

Culture: Demonstrate awareness of the basic cultural differences between Italian and North American culture. Recognize that learning a language enables a person to better understand and interact with the people who use the language natively.

COURSE NOTES

-Regular attendance, which includes active and positive contributions to classes and lab sessions, is strongly recommended. Lack of attendance to class and labs will adversely affect your overall performance and will have a negative impact on your final grade.

-Missed tests, assignments and examinations will be given a grade of F.
A student who is absent from a test for legitimate reasons must inform the instructor immediately and an alternative course of action may be considered.

-Labs will start the week of January 19.

- Assignments have to be submitted in class unless otherwise agreed.

- The Department's drop-box, located in the foyer area of the third floor in Craigie Hall between blocks D and C, is available for depositing assignments and course work. The material placed in the drop-box will be collected and date-stamped at the beginning and at the end of the working day.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:

- the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test);
- parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
- the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or
- a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted."

Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student's work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students' examination papers.

3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.

DISABILITIES AND ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations. Students with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre should contact their office at 220-8237. Students who have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre are not eligible for formal academic accommodation. Students also required to discuss their needs with the instructor no later than fourteen (14) days after the start of this course.

WRITING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM

Writing skills should cross all disciplines. Students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their courses and, where appropriate, instructors can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Centre in the Effective Writing Office (<http://www.efwr.ucalgary.ca/>) can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.
