DESCRIPTION

Due to unforeseen and unprecedented days ahead of us due to the Covid-19 evolution, there may be possibilities of some changes in the delivery and assessment methods during the term. All students who are registering for this course are required to study daily for at least 1- 2 hours to complete this course. This course will be designed for students who are dedicated and willing to improve their Japanese. The instructor will use D2L to distribute materials and correspond with students. Students must check D2L and be alert to all information delivered by the instructor. Communicating and working with others is very important to improve language; therefore, students will be required to work in pairs or small groups in or outside of class, depending on the activities. All students are asked to be aware of showing respect for each other whenever working with others.

This course (JPNS 333) is the second semester in the Intermediate Japanese (third year) course and is a continuation of Japanese 331. Students are required to fully understand all written texts in Genki Book 1 and 2 and be confident of grammar points that are covered in primary Japanese beginner textbooks. Please review beginner textbooks and ensure you are ready to challenge the intermediate level. The textbook (An Integrated Approach to Intermediate Japanese) will be used in this course; however, more authentic or web-based materials will be used to enhance students learning.

This course may not be repeated for credit.

PREREQUISITES: Japanese 331 or consent of the school

[Note] All university-level prerequisites for Japanese language courses must be met with a grade of "C-" or better. Students may be required to complete different requirements if the assessment of their language background shows that this is appropriate.

OBJECTIVES

JPNS 333 offers further practical communication practice to build students' ability to converse and discuss on a wide range of topics. In addition to refining communication skills developed in the beginners' level courses, students will develop all four language skills (speaking, listening, reading, and writing) at the intermediate level. Students will also learn some higher-level grammatical structures and expressions, and acquire the skills needed to discuss events not only in immediate, familiar situations, but also in communities

Faculty of Arts

School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

and society. At the same time, strong emphasis will be placed on developing reading and writing skills using practical materials used for different functions and situations in Japanese.

OUTCOMES

After completion of this course, students will see further development of Japanese listening, reading, speaking, and writing skills in selected topics, specifically:

- Students will be able to communicate productively and comfortably in written text.
- Students will be able to develop ideas in selected topics and present on topics that they are interested in.
- Students will be able to speak Japanese with confidence.
- Students will be able to understand a wide range of styles of Japanese speaker on selected topics.

Participation

- This course is in-person course and students must attend the lectures.
- "Participation" here includes regular attendance, active participation during the lecture, and preparation for the coming lectures (including homework and daily practice). These are essential to complete this course successfully since quizzes, tests, assignments, and projects are all aligned to class activities to maximize one's language learning. During the lectures, students are strongly encouraged to make voluntary remarks/responses and actively participate in the pair/group work.

Guidelines for submitting assignments, Homework, and expectations for writing quality:

- All assignments and projects have individual deadlines.
- Listening, Reading, Speaking and Writing skills will be assessed in various ways.
- Quizzes are closed textbook. Once you open a quiz, it will have to be completed within a short, fixed time limit.
- Missed Tests and Quizzes cannot be rescheduled.
- There will be appointment-based tests with the instructor. Students have responsibility to take those exams at the assigned time. Please email your instructor if the timing will not work for you (e.g., Childcare or other reasons). No show without prior contact will be subject to zero points.
- All course work – assignments, projects and homework must be done by yourself. The works will be assessed on technical accuracy (grammar, spelling, word choice) and content/creativity. Note that online translators or other composition aids are not permitted; their use constitutes a violation of academic honesty. Please read Academic misconduct below.
- Homework will be graded on a pass/fail basis. Due dates are indicated in D2L.

Policy in case of missed or late assignments

When you are missing or can't complete any graded coursework such as tests, quizzes, and assignments/projects) in time with a legitimate reason, you must communicate with your course instructor PRIOR to the event or the deadline. Failing to do that will result in no make-up or extension.

Guidelines for tests/quizzes/assignments

Unit Tests

There are 2-unit tests. Each unit test has a listening, reading and a Kanji writing test sections.

Oral/Speaking/Reading Test

Oral/Speaking/Reading test is a solo(/pair) interview-style test and will be scheduled during the class and outside of the class hour by appointments. More details will be provided later in the course. Make-ups and alternative date/time are NOT allowed, unless you have a legitimate reason including a serious accident, illness, and so forth.

Quizzes

These quizzes are CLOSED textbook via D2L quiz. Once you start a quiz, you must complete it within a short, fixed time limit (5-15 min). However, you have an UNLIMITED number of attempts before the due date. The questions will be shuffled and switched each time you attempt. Repeat the quiz to understand better. Make-ups and extensions of the accessing time are NOT allowed, unless you have a legitimate reason including a serious accident, illness, and so forth.

Faculty of Arts

School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

Projects

Project #1 is a group project during the class to review the lesson.

Project #2 has four main components (project plan/doing a project for 5 times/ presentation/peer reflections). All these tasks must be handed in by the deadline in-person or via D2L. The extension of the deadlines is NOT allowed, unless you have a legitimate reason including a serious accident, illness, and so forth. Late submissions will be accepted for only writing assignments and presentations. Each late submission will be subject to a 5% deduction per day. No submission will be accepted if more than 1 week has past and will result in a grade of zero, unless you have a legitimate reason including a serious accident, illness, and so forth. Note: If you need to submit after the due date, please email to your instructor to re-open the submission files since all files will be closed on the due date.

Homework

Homework will be graded on a pass/fail basis and must be handed in by the deadline in-person, via D2L, or other type of tools like Google Forms or Padlet. The extension of the deadlines is NOT allowed, unless you have a legitimate reason including a serious accident, illness, and so forth. For the course tasks in this section (excluding the quiz tasks mentioned right above), late submissions will be accepted up to 3 days and subjected to a 50% deduction. No submission will be accepted if more than 3 days have past and will result in a grade of zero, unless you have a legitimate reason including a serious accident, illness, and so forth. Note: If you need to submit after the due date, please email to your instructor to re-open the submission files since all files will be closed on the due date.

Course expectations

- It is YOUR responsibility to check the class schedule and all the information on D2L frequently so as not to miss any upcoming quizzes, tests, projects, and assignments.
- It is YOUR responsibility to read well and follow the assignment instructions provided on D2L. Submissions without following instructions will result in a grade of zero or some deduction.
- It is YOUR responsibility to keep up with what you have missed during the class (including assignments) from your own absence.
- This is a fast-paced course. On top of regular lecture time, you are required to spend about 3.5 hours/week to complete all the assigned lab and other asynchronous tasks. For your own daily self-study, at least 1-2 hours/day is required to follow this course successfully. Further time commitment may be required to complete projects and special assignments.
- You are required to learn new vocabulary prior to each lesson and the targeted grammar points prior to each class.
- You are required to keep practicing kana, Kanji and new vocabulary on a daily basis.
- You are strongly recommended to use the audio study aid that comes with the textbook/workbook when you self-study. Other study aid materials will be provided in D2L.

You are strongly encouraged to monitor your learning process in D2L. Self-reflection task might be assigned to improve student's learning experience.
